I. Design

The 67th UN DPI/NGO Conference is an opportunity to discuss concrete ways to take the UN’s people-centered mandate forward, in closer partnership with civil society. The re-positioned UN development system will offer a platform for non-governmental organizations (NGOs) to work more effectively with the UN to implement the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development – and to communicate and advocate for it. Based on this concept and making the connection with the 66th UN DPI/NGO Conference inspired by the SDGs brand, the introductory line of the United Nations Charter “We the Peoples” in a circle of coloured facets has been chosen to represent stakeholders coming together from different perspectives and backgrounds to come up with global solutions for global problems.

II. Use of the logo

Use of the logo by United Nations offices, Funds and Programmes and other subsidiary organs and organizations of the United Nations System

United Nations offices, Funds and Programmes and other subsidiary organs and organizations of the United Nations System may use the 67th UN DPI/NGO Conference logo without obtaining prior approval from the UN DPI NGO Relations Unit. However, for reporting purposes, the UN DPI NGO Relations Unit should be informed of events and information materials and items for which the logo is used including, inter alia, publications, posters, brochures, videos, pins, T-shirts, etc.

The 67th UN DPI/NGO Conference logo must be used in its entirety. Moreover, if the UN office, Fund and Programme or other subsidiary organ or organizations of the United Nations system has its own specific logo, the latter should be displayed side by side with the 67th UN DPI/NGO Conference logo.
